MEMORANDUM FOR: THE DIRECTOR, FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND SECURITY REVIEW/OASD/PA

SUBJECT: Request for CIO Briefing Slides

Reference: FOIA Case 94-F-2581

1. The Central Imagery Office (CIO) Policy Division has reviewed the reference FOIA request. Enclosed is a copy of the viewgraphs presented by Major General Brett M. Dula, Deputy Director of the CIO, to the 16 November 1994 symposium sponsored by the National Military Intelligence Association. This briefing is releasable to Mr. Jeffrey T. Richelson, the FOIA requestor.

2. My FOIA action officer is Mr. Kevin Spitler, who can be contacted at (703) 285-5845.

Stephen G. Roberts
FOIA Approval/Denial Authority, CIO

1 enclosure a/s
November 16, 1994

CIO Overview

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE OFFICE

[Diagram]
National systems unable to fill void
Tactical reconnaissance broken
Need broad area synthetic coverage
Need timely support to military operations
Multiple "Lessons Learned" studies
DESERST SHIELD/DESSERT STORM
Need central leadership
Need focused imagery management
U.S. imagery capabilities fragmented
Congressional Impetus
Establishment of CIO
Improve support to military operations
  • End-to-end
  • Integrated
  • Highly responsive
Create imagery architecture
Provide central direction and leadership
CIO central management authority
DCI/SECDER blue ribbon panel

Establishment of CIO (Cont'd.)
Established as a Defence Agency May 1992

Central Imagery Office

Chartered by

DoD Directive 5105.6, Central Imagery Office

DCI Directive 2/9, Management of National Imagery Intelligence

Combat Support Agency
CIO Chain of Command
Provide support to military operations, DoD, CIA, and other Federal Government agencies on matters and other Federal Government agencies on matters concerning imagery relating to the national security.

OSD & JCS
Services
Commands
Operating forces
NSC Organizations

Customers
Intelligence Community
UN
Allies
Congress
Civil Sector
at the right time.

in the right format

to the right users

the right imagery data provide...

"The United States Imagery System will"

Vision
"... Spectrum by sensors, other segment of the electromagnetic other means of sensing the visual or any platforms, remotely piloted vehicles, or be acquired by satellites, airborne objectives or activities. This imagery can any natural or manmade features or related reconnaissance that provide a likeness of "Imagery includes all products of

Imagery Definition
CIO Functions

- Establish training policy
- Protect intelligence sources and methods
- Develop imagery policy
- Policy
- Evaluate performance of imagery components
- Imagery needs
- Advise SECDEF and DCI regarding future
- Ensure responsive imagery support
- General
Community Strategic Planning for U.S. Imagery

Dissemination

Exploitation

Collection

Requirements

CIO Functions (cont'd.)
Training

Systems

Standards for Interoperability

Dissemination «

Exploitation «

Collection «

Establish Imagery Architectures

Systems Development •

CIO Functions (cont'd)
CIO Functions (cont'd.)

- Liaisons
- Support to military operations and exercises
- Provide advisory tasking to non-national assets
- Task national imagery assets
- Establish imagery requirements
- Operations
Program & Budget

- Activities
- Establish unified and focused objectives
- Related to Imagery
- R&D
- Community Research
- Orchestrated Imagery

(Continued)
Commands
Exercise support for military services and Central Imagery Tasking Authority
Requirements Management System
Architecture

USIS Architecture Migration Plan (UAAMP)

Community Training

Planning

Classification Review Task Force (CRTF)

A Few Accomplishments
Community

Leveraging technology for the imagery

Implementing architecture

Imagery classification recommendations

Completing review and implementation of

Challenges opportunities accommodate commercial satellite Developing effective policy/plans to resources decreasing
Demand for imagery increasing while

Challenges (cont'd.)
The right organization with the right mission in the right place
at the right time

CIO

Summary